

God What are you doing?

God is in the heart Business, in the business of changing hard hearts, to soft hearts. In the business of healing the broken hearted and binding up the wounds, so he can give a new heart, and therefore new life. It is in this process I ask God. God what are you doing in my heart.

A prayer: God break my heart, remove the stony places, free my heart to speak your words in Love, Help me to give out what you have placed in me, help me to get rid of the garbage in my heart, Help me to be in sync with your heart beat, I want to be so close to you, yet when I look at my heart, I see my sins, Do you see them, Please forgive me of them, I give them to you, do with me what you will Jesus.

Cover my heart in your blood, Your blood that brings healing and restoration, Jesus there are times I feel like, no one knows me except you. And it is in this feeling I feel so lonely, perhaps Jesus it is because I have been hurt in the past, that I have only let a few people know my heart,

What are you doing? What do you want to show me today? Because Lord I just don't see, what you see in me? Please bring people who can see what you see and explain to me your purpose.

Lord help me to know, your Love, Help me to be faithful to you. To walk in a manner that is glorifying to you.

God your ultimate purpose is to have fellowship with us. And for us to share the good news that we can have fellowship and eternal life, with the Creator our father God.

God What are you doing?

What ever your doing it hurts, the conviction of the Holy Spirit is heavy, so heavy I must respond, not out of fear, but out of Love and a desire to be closer to you, to know your will, your plan for my life, Lord it seems I missed plan A, and Plan B has always been on your mind, so Lord I ask you? Will you restore to me the Joy of my salvation, Give me a new heart for my old heart is worn out and tired, and broken, and full of scars, but if you will, if you desire to fix my old heart, I know you will do a good job. But I much rather have a new heart,

This is my desire, to know you and to make you known, however my actions do not seem to line up with my desires help to to have a stronger desire to know you. To Seek you, and if it means I have to quit my job for a while I will do that. I miss my time I used to spend with you.

Lord forgive me, my spirit is willing but my flesh is weak,

Psalms 34:18 Jehovah is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart, And saveth such as are of a contrite spirit.

19 Many are the afflictions of the righteous; But Jehovah delivereth him out of them all.

20 He keepeth all his bones: Not one of them is broken.

21 Evil shall slay the wicked; And they that hate the righteous shall be condemned.

22 Jehovah redeemeth the soul of his servants; And none of them that take refuge in him shall be condemned.

Acts 9:1 ¶But Saul, yet breathing threatening and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest,

2 and asked of him letters to Damascus unto the synagogues, that if he found any that were of the Way, whether men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem.

3 And as he journeyed, it came to pass that he drew nigh unto Damascus: and suddenly there shone round about him a light out of heaven:

4 and he fell upon the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

5 And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest:

6 but rise, and enter into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do.

7 And the men that journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing the voice, but beholding no man.

8 And Saul arose from the earth; and when his eyes were opened, he saw nothing; and they led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus.

9 And he was three days without sight, and did neither eat nor drink.

10 ¶Now there was a certain disciple at Damascus, named Ananias; and the Lord said unto him in a vision, Ananias. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord.

11 And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go to the street which is called Straight, and inquire in the house of Judas for one named Saul, a man of Tarsus: for behold, he prayeth;

12 and he hath seen a man named Ananias coming in, and laying his hands on him, that he might receive his sight.

13 But Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard from many of this man, how much evil he did to thy saints at Jerusalem:

14 and here he hath authority from the chief priests to bind all that call upon thy name.
